East-India Houſe, May 20, 1773.

The Court of Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the Eaſt Indies, do hereby give Notice,

That a General Court of the ſaid Company will be held at their Houſe in Leadenhall-Street, on Thurſday next the 27th of May, at Two o'Clock in the Afternoon preciſely, to take into further Conſideration the Report made the 27th of April laſt, by the Committee appointed to conſider of proper Regulations, for the better Management of the Affairs of the Eaſt-India Company at Home, and the Bye-Laws ſubmitted to be eſtabliſhed in Conſequence of the ſaid Report.

East-India Houſe, May 24, 1773.

The Court of Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the Eaſt Indies do hereby give Notice,

That a General Court of the ſaid Company will be held at their Houſe in Leadenhall-Street, on Wedneſday next the 26th Inſtant, from Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, until Six in the Evening, for the Determination by Ballot of the following Queſtion, viz.

That the Petition this Day prepared by the General Court be approved, and humbly preſented to the Honourable the Houſe of Commons, ſetting forth;

That the Bill now depending in that Honourable Houſe, for eſtabliſhing certain Regulations for the better Management of the Affairs of the East-India Company, as well in India as in Europe, will, if paſſed into a Law, effectually deſtroy every Privilege which the Petitioners hold under the moſt ſacred Securities that Subjects can depend upon in this Country, and muſt therefore prove a Precedent dangerous to the Property of the People at large.

That the appointing of Officers by Parliament or the Crown, to be veſted with the whole Civil and Military Authority of the Preſidency of Bengal, and alſo the Ordering, Management, and Government of all the Territorial Acquiſitions and Revenues of the Company in the Kingdoms of Bengal, Bahar and Orixa, together with the other ſuperintending Powers over the Settlements of Bombay and Madraſs, as ſpecified in the ſaid Bill, independent of any Choice in the Company, or any real Power of Controul in the Directors or General Courts of the ſaid Company, or even any Power in the ſaid Company of removing the ſaid Officers for Miſbehaviour, or filling up of Vacancies in Caſe of Death or Avoidents, is a Meaſure ſo extraordinary (while the Poſſeſſions are alledged to remain in the Company) that the Petitioners humbly beg Leave to call the Attention of Parliament to this moſt alarming Circumſtance, before this Honourable Houſe ſhall give it's Sanction to an Act, which under the Colour of Regulation will annihilate at once the Powers of the Eaſt-India

[Price Three-Pence.]

India Company, and virtually transfer them to the Crown.

That the ſaid Bill is deſtructive of the eſſential Rights and Intereſts of the Petitioners in many other Reſpects, and is further defective as to many of the Purpoſes for which it is declared to be framed.

That the Petitioners further look upon this Bill as tending to deſtroy the Liberties of the Subject, from an immenſe Addition of Power it muſt give to the Influence of the Crown.

And the Petitioners cannot conclude without obſerving, before they are deprived of their Franchiſes, which are the great Security for their Property, that they have never been made acquainted with any Charge of Delinquency having been made againſt them in Parliament; that if any ſuch Charge has been made, they have never been called upon to be heard againſt it; and that they cannot therefore ſuppoſe, that any ſuch Delinquency on the Part of the Company has been voted; which Delinquency however is made the Ground of this Bill.

The Petitioners therefore humbly pray, that they may be heard by themſelves or their Council, againſt the ſaid Bill, and that the ſame may not paſs into a Law.

This Day are publiſhed,
